EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONS TO FOCUS ON CONSOLIDATING INTERNAL SYNERGIES, AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

15 MAY 2013, JAKARTA - PT Indika Energy Tbk. (“Indika Energy”, Jakarta: INDY.JK) announced during the Company’s Annual General Meeting this afternoon that it will be undertaking a re-focussing of roles in the functions of the Group CEO and COO in the Board of Directors.

Mr. Wishnu Wardhana now assumes the appointment of President Director and Group CEO, and Mr. M. Arsjad Rasjid P. M. assumes the appointment of Vice President Director and Group COO of PT Indika Energy Tbk.

Since 2008, Indika Energy has grown significantly and expanded the company operations and business units across the coal mining value chain, from exploration, production and transshipment through to the delivery of energy to the end users. Structurally and operationally, Indika Energy has become a very different company as a result of its inorganic growth as well as expansion of business in the energy services, energy resources and energy infrastructure sectors over the past five years.

Mr. Wishnu Wardhana said, “The corporate destination statement in the Company’s vision and mission statements clearly set out where Indika Energy aspires to arrive, as a leading world-class energy company with integrated operations and underpinning synergies built from a high performance internal culture”.

“Given how Indika Energy has grown operationally and with our strategic focus as an Indonesia integrated energy company that is connected to a dynamic global energy market and faced with both fresh challenges and new opportunities for business development, our focus is to consolidate our business and derive synergies along the business value chain, while at the same time capitalising synergies for new opportunities emerging in the Indonesian energy sector,” added Mr. Wardhana.
